IRA charitable rollover

If you are 70 ½ years old or older, you can take advantage of a simple way to benefit Habitat for Humanity of Metro Louisville and receive tax benefits in return. You can give up to $100,000 from your IRA directly to a qualified charity, such as Habitat, without having to pay income taxes on the money.

The IRA Charitable Rollover law no longer has an expiration date so you are free to make annual gifts this year and well into the future.

Here's how it works:

- You must be 70 ½ or older.
- An individual may transfer up to a total of $100,000 per year and a married couple may give up to $200,000.
- Your gift must be transferred directly from the IRA account to Habitat for Humanity.
- Your gift is a transfer of funds from your IRA to Habitat for Humanity, so it does not create taxable income for you and is not considered a charitable tax deduction.
- Only traditional IRAs or qualified plans rolled into a traditional IRA are eligible.
- The transfer of funds counts towards your annual required minimum distribution from your IRA.

If you're interested in this popular way to support Habitat for Humanity, you may use the form on the second page to send to your IRA Administrator.
